

1 612:10-7-230.5. DRS Monitoring
2

3 (a) The counselor will continue to be available for technical assistance upon 4 completion of approved purchases. Counselor will review with consumer every 3
5 months the progress of the business. This will include copies of the businesses 6 profit and loss statements and record of business performed. The purpose of 7 these reviews is to determine if the involvement in self-employment is allowing 8 the consumer to substantially increase his/her earnings to achieve self-9 employment success and be able to meet on-going financial obligations of the 10 business. Should the business not be showing an increase in the income of the 11 consumer, the counselor will review, with the consumer, the consumer's business 12 plans to try to increase the business income. If necessary, the consumer may be 13 referred to the small business development center or similar program for 14 technical assistance in making changes in business operation to achieve a 15 business profit.

16
17 (b) Stated in the IPE, this case would be agreed upon as a successful closure, if 18 the business is stable after 90 days, and has met the specified level of 19 performance when the client is able to perform activities required for maintaining 20 self-employment. At the time of case closure, title for all goods purchased by the 21 agency will be released to the consumer.